Favourite fabrics

The new Maharani fabric collection from Osborne and Little includes a little bit of everything; stripes, geometrics, damask, florals with birds and a tropical botanical pattern. Best of all, the five fabulous patterns come in an array of bold, bright, contemporary shades, including splashes of neon pink. The designs are good value, starting at £35 a metre. Blinds in Susa fabric, £40 a metre; chair covered in Balyan fabric, £35 a metre; all Osborne and Little

Hot trend

Eyecatching bird motifs are hopping onto an array of soft furnishings this season. The latest range from Natural History has jewel-toned prints, while Katie Mosa's new hand-drawn fabric, Twitchers Delight, makes for pretty table linen. Caged Hummingbirds cushion, £70, Natural History. Napkins, £30 for four, Katie Mosa

Good news

Fresh looks for your home and garden with the latest furniture, accessories and fabrics

Smart seating

A sofa is one of the most important furniture investments for your home, and it's essential to find one that's right for you. This 'fifties-style design by Assembly Room is made in the UK from sustainable plywood and 100 per cent wool upholstery fabric that's renewable and compostable. There are several shades to choose from; this charcoal grey with a splash of hot pink on the buttoning combines timeless styling with a modern touch.

AR002 sofa with pink buttons, £1545, Assembly Room

Outdoor living

Get more from your garden this summer with innovative and inexpensive outdoor furniture. This stylish double folding deckchair costs £299 and provides comfy seating in a small space. It's part of the Solis range, the first complete outdoor furniture collection by Dwell. Take a closer look at the full selection, which also includes a dining set and armchairs, in store or online.
